Long and Winding Road

*The path we follow is never straight.
There are always things that twist and turn our lives in different directions.*

Although we plan to take the shortest routes, the simplest solutions all somehow become so complex.

Long and Winding Road

Long and Winding Road

Dilemmas arise even as we begin our path.

As we continue, our road begins weaving in and out around our goals and aspirations.

Long and Winding Road

Long and Winding Road

Many times we refuse to compromise our goals. We keep our dignity but forego further growth.

Looking back on a long uphill climb, we gain satisfaction from our accomplishments.

Long and Winding Road

The road ahead is uncertain, but through our journeys we gain the insight to shape our final destinys.

In Memory Of

Gene Thorne

December 6, 1935 - January 15, 1983

Gene Thorne joined the Rolling Hills staff when the school opened in 1964. In the next eighteen years Gene became a caring, sincere counselor to thousands of students; he became a witty, refreshing member of a staff that too often needed his incisive urging; he became a true friend to everyone. His heart was bigger than his appetite, and his spirit was more infectious than his laugh. So many people learned so many wonderful things from Gene Thorne. He will always be a part of Rolling Hills High School.

School Administrators

The newest addition to this year's administration was Mr. Russell Neumen. Neumen replaced Ms. Nancy Stuckey as Activities Director. The administration at Rolling Hills High School deals effectively with the numerous problems that a high school presents and attends to the needs of a diverse group of students. These responsibilities are fulfilled with expertise and caring, whether the administration is deciding how to spend school funds or planning the junior-senior prom. Rolling Hills students are fortunate to have such a competent and qualified staff of administrators.

District Administrators

Dr. Claude E. Norcross retired this year after serving the school district for eight years as superintendent of schools. Dr. Norcross earned his B.A. at Central Missouri State University, his M.A. at Claremont Graduate School and his Ed. D at Stanford University. Throughout his career as a superintendent, he made significant improvements for the school, and was credited with maintaining the great reputation enjoyed by the Palos Verdes School System.

Counselors

The counseling staff at Rolling Hills provides a valuable function by helping students choose courses to take and by aiding them with college information and work opportunities. In a large, sometimes impersonal school, the counselors provide a haven where the individual can discuss his personal concerns, both academic and social, with someone who cares.

Alternative Programs

Special Education and continuation classes focus on specific needs of many Rolling Hills students. The curriculum of special education encompasses numerous areas. The goal is building success and a sense of self worth in each student. The continuation program has been offered since 1978 as an alternative form of education. Health and Driver Education classes teach the importance of safe driving habits as well as health and hygiene.

Evie Sorrels

Bob Pier assists a student during one of his health/driver's education classes. Driver's education is a mandatory course for all high school students wanting a California driver's license.

English

With the new policy concerning the writing development of students, the focus of English is justifiably on composition. Literature plays a part as an appreciation of what constitutes good writing, as seen in the classic pieces of fiction. It can often be a stepping stone to improved student compositions. The English department, under the capable leadership of Garry Poe, has established the link between students' written expression and literary awareness. The result is that an RH student acquires a strong background in both reading and writing skills.

Science

Wondering why and discovering are the challenges of science. Laboratory work is one of the most effective ways for a student to discover. Whether he is dissecting a frog in biology, analyzing a precipitate in chemistry, or calculating the force due to gravity in physics, science will enrich the analytical mind. Rolling Hills has a fine staff of knowledgeable instructors in this area.

John McGehee

Mathematics

Mathematics is a strict discipline where students learn about numbers, logic and reason. From Math I to Calculus, students develop the ability to approach problem solving and to arrive at answers in an organized, systematic manner. This is a skill that is valuable in all other academic areas as well.

Social Studies

Social Studies courses acquaint students with history, both current and past. Students learn of people throughout the world and their customs, ideas, lands, as well as contributions to civilization. Each day teachers bring us closer to these cultures. Observing and studying the evolution of history helps students cope with the ever-quickenning pace of today.

Foreign Language

Learning a foreign language is the cornerstone in communicating with people of other nationalities. Europe and South America become closer to us as we learn to speak the native tongue. Language can aid in breaking down cultural barriers in our own society, as well as across the sea.

Marilyn Hill goes over test scores with her Spanish I teaching assistant. Weekly testing and lab work test the students' progress in the foreign language courses.

Practical Arts

The fine and practical arts instructors teach students something which is often as important as academics — how to work with their hands. These courses stress basic principles of hard work and making something with one's own talents. In gourmet cooking or interior design, students can display their creativity as these areas prepare students for the realities of living on their own. Woodworking, metal-working, and mechanical drawing teach students valuable skills.

Athletics

With the increasing concentration on physical fitness in our society, physical education is an important part of the curriculum. The goals of the department's teachers are striving for and keeping the students in top physical condition. Various sports are offered ranging from volleyball to gymnastics. An integral part of a student's four year program, physical education is highly regarded.

Dwaine Lyon goes over his semester grades due in the counseling office in 15 minutes. Mr. Lyon is one of an enthusiastic staff of physical education teachers at Rolling Hills.

Art

Students enrolled in art classes are encouraged to display their abilities and open their imaginations. These courses are designed for the expansion of the creative mind. Classes offered in this area are Drama, Ceramics, Photography, Drawing and Painting. These elective courses are taught by a staff of talented and enthusiastic professionals.

Business

Business courses are regarded as some of the most important and practical courses offered at Rolling Hills. They make a positive contribution to the overall curriculum of the school. The diverse areas of instruction include typing, office machines, briefhand, business math, accounting, and the newly offered computer instruction. Students have the chance to broaden their skills for entry into the world of commerce, giving them a solid foundation in much-needed practical applications for conducting business.

Special Services

The library, nurse's office, and work experience center provide special services for all Rolling Hills students. The library's helpful staff assists students with special project, term paper, or composition reference material. The school nurse is always available for health care while students with personal problems can meet with the school psychologist. Anyone interested in working during the school year or summer months can drop by the work experience center for advice and consultation. Headed by Jean Etter, the staff will help any student locate a job. A wealth of information and brochures are also available regarding career opportunities.

Greg Alessandra, President

The senior year is the year of high school I remember most, as I am sure you do too. It was full of both enjoyable and meaningful activities. I hope you enjoyed this year as much as I did. Most importantly, I would like to thank you for being you. As a whole you have shown yourselves to be the closest and most caring class ever to graduate from Rolling Hills High School. I wish you all the best of luck in everything you do.

Gregory P. Alessandra

Four years ago 465 freshmen entered Rolling Hills High School afraid, but excited. Would time ever pass quickly enough? It did, and it was too quickly for most. These individuals grew in mind and spirit. Memories remain — four Homecoming weeks, four Proms, four years of dances, elections, fun, and studies. And one special day is behind — graduation and the all-night party. We can now look to tomorrow, but we will reflect on the past. It was a very special time.

Junior Class Officers

Steve Lewey, President

This year has been a success and I would like to thank you for your support. The homecoming booth was original and helped raise school spirit at the fair. The candy sales throughout the year, along with the car rallies, were loads of fun and profitable. The impressive, beautiful Biltmore Hotel was the site of this year's successful Prom, and for those of you lucky enough to attend, you had the time of your life. Thank you to all the juniors who donated valuable time to these activities this year. I love you!

Steve Lewey

Because college is a distant thought, juniors occupy their time with the present. They are the motivators, always involved, for they are the future. The past is filled with many happy memories, and the future seems even brighter. Juniors, now blossomed and mature students, have only the future to live.

Stephanie Zamzow, Secretary/Treasurer; Shawn Reilly, Second Semester Vice-President; Doug McFarland, First Semester Vice-President.

Cheryl Arico, Activities Representative; Sherry Woods, Publicity Representative; Karen Allman, Personnel Management Representative.

Surrounded by the award-winning Rolling Hills High School short flags, Colleen Weatherell departs from the stands to satisfy her hungry stomach. After she returned, the squad performed an exhilarating homecoming show for the over-anxious crowd.

As Karen Allman comments on the lack of business at Homecoming, Tracy Sullivan seems preoccupied by the other activities at the busy fair. Even though other events were scheduled on the day of the fair, many organizations made a profit and had fun at the same time.

Katy Costello, President

The sophomore year is an exciting one, and one spent making money. As freshmen we learned the first steps in fund raising and used those ideas in our second year, in preparation for the Junior-Senior Prom and eventually graduation activities. This year we had bake sales, car washes, game concessions, and our biggest fund raiser, Homecoming. Thank you for a great year of support and fun.

Katy Costello

With another year behind them, sophomores became familiar with Rolling Hills High School at last. Immature days are behind them and the future holds a lifetime of experiences. Questions still filled their minds, but so many more were answered during this second year on campus. They survived a rewarding and sometimes exasperating year and are ready for the future.

I want to thank all of you for really being involved in this year's activities. You supported our class during homecoming, making that event our first success. We also enjoyed movies, a barbecue, candy sales, and a trip to ABC Studios during the 1982-83 school year. Thank you all for your support and participation.

Nick Arico

A new school, new teachers, new life, a new challenge. Freshman, everyone has been one, but some never quit. Famous for their naive behavior, freshmen attempt to blend into the crowd, but stand out like sore thumbs. All in all, these freshmen, easily lost and confused, manage to struggle through the first year wiser and anxious for the next year.

Activities

ASB Officers

Gary Schaffer, President

Student Council during the 1982-83 school year has been an effective vehicle for learning about government and learning about interpersonal relationships. New faces have decorated positions that were traditionally held by narrow individuals. This year a new era of "good feeling" began. Activities were attended; even laughter could be heard. Hail the individual.

Love,

Two underclassmen watch the festivities with interest as they wait to be helped at the Sophomore Class booth, a great attraction at the fair.

Four cat-like choreo members dance to the popular tune 'Stray Cat Strut' during a lunchtime performance. Choreo is a prestigious dance group on campus.

Larry Biederman, resident comic and drill sergeant, belts out orders to captive troops during the lunchtime USO Show. Many choral soloists sang that day.

Laura Bell models one of the fabulous Khaki shirts which helped carry out the week's theme. The Camp R*H*H*S t-shirt was a popular item among the students.

Gary Schaffer and his partner Val Quandt display their talents at one of the many theme-oriented lunchtime activities scheduled throughout the homecoming week.

CAMP R*H*H*S

"Camp R*H*H*S," a very controversial theme for this year's Homecoming events, proved to be a fine week of festivities for all. Celebrated in October, students dressed in various army attire. The week's events included a push up contest, dress up contest and the ever-popular fair. The football game proved to be a battle but the fans' spirit was higher than ever.

During the dress up contest, students had the opportunity to show their feelings about the theme. A few students protested the theme by wearing armbands.

Relaxing during the Homecoming Fair, students gather in the amphitheater to discuss the fantastic week they've had. Homecoming proved to be memorable.

Charles Machalicky clinches his fist in hopes that it will give him strength to hit those high notes. Other singers blended their voices to create a melodious sound unequalled by many other choral groups.

Accompanied by pianist Dan Hills, the top choir at Rolling Hills intently sings the beautiful and melodic song, "London by Night." They prepared for many months getting in tune for their Christmas performance.

'Tis the season to . . .

This year the Christmas time Choral concert was the Choral Department's first. With the theme of "'Tis the Season II . . ." they performed to holiday music as well as a variety of pop, jazz, classical, and contemporary music. Connie McIntyre directed her three choirs; girl's ensemble, concert choir and madrigals for a nicely crowded house. During the year the Choral Department had two other concerts, hosted a festival, took a trip to another festival, and sang at the Courtyard. Their performances were enjoyed by enthusiastic audiences.

The Madrigals pause to receive applause for a performance that could only be described as impressive.

Drama Department invites man to dinner

The Drama Department struck again with their fall play, "The Man Who Came to Dinner." Larry Biederman starred as Sheridan Whiteside, the dinner guest, and Adrienne Samaha played Maggie Cutler. The entire cast exhibited talent which they performed to a most appreciative crowd. Making surprise appearances were Roland Cesarini and Russ Neuman. The performance was technically and artistically superb and expertly directed by Drama Instructor Billy Creamer.

Sheridan Whiteside consults Sandy (Paul Lemetti) and June Stanley (Kristi Woods) on whether or not to elope and get married despite being forbidden to by Stanley's father. He advised them to elope.

Simon (Darren Rozas) waits for the approval of Sheridan Whiteside who licks his fingers with relish after tasting the special treat that Simon has spent preparing especially for him. In the play, Whiteside was a dominating character.

Teacher Roland Cesarini and Activities Director Russell Neumen make their acting debuts as jailbirds in possibly the high point of the evening show and afternoon matinee.

Winter Royalty

The 1982 Girls' League Winter Formal, "A Night on the Town," proved to be one of the highlights of the school year. Many hours were spent preparing the gymnasium and decorating for this special occasion. A New York skyline on one wall together with hundreds of blue streamers from the ceiling carried out the theme. Both Key Club and Girls' League elected the court for the formal, but only after intentionally embarrassing interviews and extensive voting. The evening culminated with the announcement of the royalty court. Teri Getty was named Queen. A surprising tie for King resulted in crowns for Mark Summit and Bryan Furlong.

Faculty does it again

The faculty Donkey Basketball team kept their perfect record by defeating the Lettermen's Club 36-16. After the Lettermen took a 6-0 lead behind Steve Voce, Mike Speltz, and Scott Costi, the star of last year's game, Bill O'Neill came in and scored the go-ahead points. O'Neill led all scorers with 14 points while Phil Griffith followed with 10. For the Lettermen, Tom Gilje scored six points, and Voce sank four. Starting for the Lettermen were Costi, Voce, Speltz, John Butler, and Darryl Speach while the faculty starters consisted of Griffith, Bob Pier, Harvey Crow, Tom Maeder, and Rich Talliaferro.

Sure-shot Pier prepares to shoot yet another basket. Bob Pier was responsible for a good percentage of the points scored at this game. The event proved just another victory for faculty.

Bill O'Neill contemplates the meaning of life while getting support from his ass before the big game. O'Neill's game was greatly improved due to his pregame meditations. The faculty showed great teamwork that night which made them the undefeatable winners.

This cute donkey was a big hit at this year's game. The donkeys added extra excitement to the faculty-student competition. All participants enjoyed the game.

Tom Maeder stands with his ass while waiting to go back into the game. Some of the faculty had problems with the donkeys, but Mr. Maeder got along with his superbly.

Prospective Lettermen Club members arrive at the game with bags on their heads as part of initiations. The new members were announced at a later date.

Scott Archibald attempts to pass to a teammate but Mr. O'Neill is in the way. The students practiced long, hard hours for this game, but their efforts were in vain.

Laura Agapay shows great poise in an original piece. Choreo members are encouraged to create new dance routines for each show.

Meghan White, Christine Gervais and Diane Ponce de Leon give it their all for an outstanding performance. Their expressive energy and remarkable agility was well received.

Ann Friedfeld and Dave Norwood step out in style. Choreo members impressed their captive audience with dances ranging from modern to ballet.

Tracy Niedermeyer, in deep concentration, adds her talents to the opening number. The opening act included every member of Choreo.

'A Day in the Life of a Dancer'

The Choreo Department gave their top performance in this year's winter show. The theme, "A Day in the Life of a Dancer," tied the numbers together with great harmony. The members of this prestigious group worked long and hard to produce a top quality show which was presented to an appreciative, standing room only audience.

"A Day in a Dancer's Life" is fully displayed in spectral colors by the playful and sassy antics of Celia Degenhardt and Tracy Niedermeyer. They contributed superb talent to the flowing progression of the show.

David Norwood, a dancer at the head of his class, apparently has his routines polished for the choreo show which inadvertently was the culmination of much hard work and practice.

One of the major contributors to this year's presentation is Christine Gervais, whose agile manner stimulated interest in many of those who attended the Choreo presentation.

Peninsula schools join together

Colorful marching bands, drill teams, short and tall flag units from Rolling Hills, Palos Verdes, and Miraleste joined together in January for the annual Tri-School Parade. Hundreds of Peninsula residents were impressed by the polished performances of the three marching units. After the parade the high school participants moved on to the Rolling Hills football field to perform their halftime shows.

Besides the students from the three high schools, various other organizations, schools, and community service groups had representatives in the parade. Scouting troops and the 4-H club could be seen spread throughout the procession.

Rolling Hills' marching unit had a highly successful year. The marching band and attached banners earned a first place and a second. The tall flags added a second place to the awards and the drill team finished their parade season with one first place, two second places, and one third place trophy.

The parade generated a popular response from the community. Many onlookers enjoyed the opportunity to see what the Peninsula schools and organizations do.

Susie (Mira Wolff) is flustered as she announces to the group their review may not go on. Mira displayed tremendous talent in her first musical lead role. "Babes" was well received, playing to enthusiastic audiences.

Valentine White (Gary Schaffer), Seymour Fleming (Jim Cummings), and Lee Calhoun (Larry Biderman) rehearse for the opening night.

Standing tall and proud, Gus (David Norwood), Bunny (Tracy Markle), and Terry (Gina Thompson) flawlessly deliver an impressive performance for an eager audience.

'Babes in Arms' revives momentum

The revival of the Rolling Hills spring musical, "Babes in Arms," also revived momentum for the drama department as the 1983 performance was heralded as one of the most successful in RH history. This musical was based on the book by Lorenz Hart and Richard Rogers, which was presented as a musical in the 1930's starring Mickey Rooney and Judy Garland. Directed by Billy Creamer, the drama department put on a fine performance. The situation presented in the plot involves a group of young actors striving for the American Dream. Performing at a small, second class theater under the constant tyrannical rule of the mean owner, they wish to break out of the small and into the big time by performing their own musical review on Broadway. First, though, they must adhere to the demand of the presentation of a play written by a self-centered playwright whose work is less than a masterpiece to say the least. Larry Biederman, Jim Cummings, David Norwood, Gina Thompson, Kathy Guthrie, Mira Wolff, Tracy Markle, and Gary Schaffer all turned in strong performances. The musical was extremely well presented on a shoestring budget by dedicated and talented students.

In her first prominent role in an RH drama production, Kathy Guthrie (Jennifer Owen) plays a child actress who is against the "red carpet treatment."

Bunny (Tracy Markle) shows Val (Gary Schaffer) the ill-written script of Lee Calhoun's famous play, "The Deep North" while Susie (Mira Wolff) looks on.

Susie (Mira Wolff) tries to persuade her brother Steve Edwards (Charles Machalicky) to see her musical review. Both gave fine performances.

Singer Cindy Martin, Apprentice (Charles Machalicky who played Susie's brother as well), Press Agent (Paul Lemetti), Apprentice (Bill Van Beek), and Susie (Mira Wolff) join together for a fine version of the title song, "Babes in Arms."

Long and Winding Road

Athletics

Football

This year's Titan football team was a truly dedicated and determined squad. Evidence of this was exemplified by their awesome hair style and their "never quit" attitude at the end of every game. The players performed extremely well against many top teams on their schedule. Coach Dan Phillips did a remarkable job taking over the head coaching position this year. Bringing the team from a 1-6 (league record) to a 4-3 and a play off berth was proof of his diligence to put the entire football program back on its feet.

All players contributed to the team's success, especially John Schlatter, Willie Peterson, Mike Kraft, Mike Jarozs, and the Speltz brothers.

Football fever is back and it's here to stay. The future looks optimistic due to quality of returning lettermen and the success of the Freshmen and Sophomore teams.

Though the offensive line lacked in size, they made up for it with technique and desire. The P.V. defense is pushed back in first quarter action by the three Johns: Butler, Lewis, Schlatter.

Mike Kraft showed much intelligence as well as determination on the field this year. At the Torrance line he calls the play at the line of scrimmage.

Thrilling at the sight of the goal line, Mike Speltz turns on the speed, leaving the South defense behind. Speltz was the driving force behind the Titan offense.

Cross Country

The Rolling Hills Cross Country team once again showed that both hard work and dedication can lead to a C.I.F. invitation. During the season, the team achieved six major victories in Bay League competition, which resulted in a second place finish in the Bay League. One of the top Varsity runners, Brian Escobar, was nominated Most Valuable Player. Other major contributors included co-captains Paul Wolf and Andy Bowlus, John Laura, Steve Lee, and freshman Martin Tilly. Coach John Rudberg also helped immensely in the 1982 Rolling Hills Cross Country team's achievements.

Senior Andy Bowlus strives for that one more step towards victory. Andy was a key varsity member and a well-rounded runner.

The Rolling Hills runners are off on the right foot in their meet against West. The Titans led the top five spots with only a single West runner around.

Water Polo

The Rolling Hills Water Polo team concluded season play with a 10-6 overall record and 4-1 league record for a second place finish in Pioneer League play. The Titans made an incredible turnabout from the prior season. Much of the team's success was due to the experienced play by returning varsity lettermen. The leading player for the team was Captain Wayne Williams, who was also selected as an All Pioneer League member. Pete Showler was also selected for All Pioneer League recognition for a fine performance all season. A playoff berth for the team was a rewarding culmination of a year of hard work. John Axtell, John McGuire and Tom Gilje were selected as second team All Leaguers.

In a tough 3-A Division Pioneer League battle, the Titan defense proved to be the deciding factor in a narrow 12-10 victory. The water polo team showed great progress and unity throughout the season.

Wayne Williams, All-Pioneer League recipient, goes for a loose ball after the Titan goalie blocked it.

Tom Gilje's range at goal defending proves a strong defensive backbone during a league game. Tom attributed the team's success to the fact that the aquamen were in good physical condition.

Basketball

This year's Rolling Hills Basketball Team has taken on a great task. The team was in their rebuilding stages and hoped to have a good season. Great talent was shown by Sophomore Jacque Gravett, Juniors Kyle Lundy and Greg Butler, and Senior Matt Ceragioli. The team was faced with injuries and sicknesses which immensely pulled down the caliber of play. Coach Walt Bynum was faced with difficult situations because of the erratic play of the Titans. The Rolling Hills Basketball team was slowly maturing game after game. A bright spot was that the team was young and was trying to get together for future recognition. The lower division teams had a successful and eventful season. They were in the position of learning new skills and developing to Varsity standards.

Matt Ceragioli goes against three West defenders. Matt, one of the few seniors on the R.H. basketball team, has been a great asset to the Titan game.

Doug Poling, starting at forward, shows ball handling skills while on the fast break. A strong point for the team was the juniors this year.

Greg Butler, who controls the court like a general, shows great agility in a Bay League game. This was a tough loss for RH.

The Titan bench shows great concern for the play down the court. The young players, although not having lived up to their reputation, matured each game.

John Butler is trying to shake off a tough Centennial defender. Butler, a senior, has added a lot of character to the team.

Kyle Lundy, going for a layup, shows dribbling skills. R.H. had many outstanding players.

Jacque Gravett shows his jumping ability while taking a shot. Jacque was a great asset.

The jump shot by Greg Butler has been a plus for the Titans. Greg showed great potential in becoming a dominant center next year. The 6'10" junior averaged 16 points per game.

Jumping for the ball at their offensive end of the court, the Titans try to start off the game on the right track. Getting an early lead in the first quarter is a vital part of the Titan strategy.

Weaving in and out of three defensive players, Kyle Lundy displays his agility as he makes another layup.

Matt Ceragioli gives a demonstration on the jump shot. Matt combines quickness and agility toward his success.

Varsity Letterman Dave Kushner once again demonstrates his outstanding defensive ability as he lunges one on one to steal the ball from the opposing player.

Geoff Yantz, one of the fastest players on the team, uses his head trying to avoid a foul during a Bay League battle against West.

Soccer

The Titan Varsity Soccer team really started off with a kick by winning their first game against Miraleste High School. This year was said to be a rebuilding year because of a very young team. The Varsity started five sophomores out of eleven players. The team had a very strong defense which resulted in very low scoring games for their opponents. Bryan Furlong, team captain, displayed strong leadership ability which resulted in good team discipline and fine results during the games.

Senior Chris Vanderlaan, who has played Titan soccer for four years, has proved to be a very valuable athlete to this year's team. His skill as offensive power maximized his teams effort.

Wrestling

Head Coach Jerry Lentz and Assistant Mike Hare led the fierce Titan "mat tigers" to an impressive 4-2 league record despite tremendous set backs due to costly injuries suffered by key wrestlers.

The wrestling team started the season extremely well, placing first and fifth at the South and San Fernando Tournaments. Individual standouts included Kyle Onaga and Steve Raizes with George Olivo, Phil Carabet, Dan Speltz, and Lewis Overbey also wrestling well. Captains Mike Speltz and Phil Headon provided excellent leadership throughout the season.

According to Coach Lentz it takes a special kind of athlete to grapple, but the pride, confidence and character attained by wrestling far outweigh the vigorous training.

Kyle Onaga dominates his opponent from San Clemente at the first big tourney of the year. He took second out of 20 schools. Kyle wrestled well all year.

Steve Raizes gets the take down in the last second of a match. Raizes has been a consistently good wrestler this year and has a proven reputation.

Volleyball

The Rolling Hills Volleyball Team had again put out another well defined year. In only a limited number of years in existence, the team did quite a job in building their reputation as a good Volleyball Team. Coach Crow and Coach Dodson have laid the foundation down for their teams to be quite successful. Top players for 1983 were Chris North, Rusty Dodson, and Pete Pistone. Through it all, the volleyball team was packed with many returning seniors. With this fact and the fact of having Varsity experience, Rolling Hills got the leadership to do quite well. Team unity had been the one big factor which the Titans had going for them. They played together on both sides of their game and ended up being very tough.

A Rolling Hills player spikes a shot into the opposing defense's blockers. The opponents could not stop the terrorizing shot of this Titan scorer. This was a boost and gave the Titans a lead towards a win.

Track and Field

Despite a declining enrollment the Boys Track and Field team enjoyed a fine season. The varsity squad returned many people and placed well in Bay League. John Agnitch, John Butler, Matt Ceragioli, and Alex Quong formed one of the most powerful jumping squads in many years. Bill Henke, Ed Savage, and Kenny Smith led the sprints and teamed with Agnitch to attend CIF in the 400 Meter Relay. The Junior Varsity division was hampered by lack of depth but still shone with good performances by Brad Magee in long jump, Paul Moebius in high jump, and Geoff Yantz and Pete Moebius in the pole vault. The Freshman team had a surprisingly large turnout and the outstanding talent led the team to a high place in league competition. They were led in the sprints by Charles Mason and Jon Tit-chener, the field events by Peter Yee, Dave Herold, and Henry Martin, and in the longer distances by Martin Tilley. Overall, the proud and successful tradition was continued in the 1983 season.

Tennis

Tennis at Rolling Hills has always been quite successful. This year, Rolling Hills had kept on the winning tradition and had accomplished a terrific league showing. The tennis team was in somewhat of a rebuilding year and had done well, nonetheless. This year's team had been filled with underclassmen, which have somewhat carried the team during the year. Top performers and all around players were William Moravec, Rocky Sheng, Bill Wallace, and Greg Cloth. William Moravec has been the winning leader throughout matches and showed this by being team captain. The Senior Class was led by Greg Kasse and Co-Captain Ron Yu. Rolling Hills has always competed with the top schools in CIF and maybe the best in the nation, which Rolling Hills has held their own in. Other Varsity members were junior, Eric Knudson, soph., Doug Merrill and freshman Kenny Ong. It was a very successful year for the Titans and should be very bright in years to come.

Greg Cloth laughs after making a terrific shot against his opponent. Rolling Hills put out some outstanding players in tennis after playing competitively here.

Greg fires a two handed backhand into the throat of his opponent. There has been a lot of team work which made this team become very successful.

Eric Knudson displays a devastating serve which was bulletted for an ace. Eric has been one of the bright juniors on the Varsity.

Junior Bill Wallace, one of the top players for Rolling Hills in both singles and doubles, displays a wicked follow through. William Moravec has also been one of the top juniors.

Swimming

The Rolling Hills swim team constantly put forth a maximum of effort during the 1983 season. Main swimmers on this year's team included Pete Showler and Graham Tilley. The swimmers were young with little experience and continued to improve during the course of the season. Despite a small number of participants, the swimmers remained competitive in every meet as spirit and enthusiasm prevailed in every competitor. The coach and team members were happy with the season's outcome.

Striving for the taste of victory, varsity swimmer Fred Sadler goes for the finish tape. The Rolling Hills swim team won this meet due to the combined efforts of the Titan's dedicated swimmers.

The Titans appear to get off to a terrific start as they get the upperhand at the meet. Rolling Hills gave signs of a bright future from the lower teams.

A Titan swimmer is off to a big lead as he leads the other competitors quite handily. The Titans gave their opponents tough competition.

Two intense RH swimmers reach toward the tape as they capture the first and second place spots. Titan swimmers showed class and team spirit.

Golf

Once again the Rolling Hills High School golf team proved to be a strong competitor in Bay League competition. This year's team looked more like a football team because of the large size of the players. The team was led mainly by seniors and juniors. Team leadership came from four-year lettermen Kevin Leach and Seamus Fitzpatrick. The Titan golfers have competed in CIF competition for the past eight years and have been Bay League champions for the past two years. Success is attributed to the talented golfers as well as the expert coaching abilities of Jerry Kestenberg.

Jim Maury winces as he watches his putt inch toward the hole for an eventual par putt. The Titan Golf team once again experienced a successful season.

Kevin Leach, using great form, attempts a long five iron shot to hopefully put him onto the green. Kevin, a four-year letterman, was the leading golfer.

Baseball

The Titan Varsity Baseball Team had once again proved to be a strong Bay League competitor. This year's team received strong leadership from its 11 seniors who acted as the nucleus of the team. The 1983 squad had very strong pitching led by Senior Darryl Speach and Juniors Steve Vickers and Joe Glikman. Defense was the key to this year's success with consistently exceptional performances by Infielders Stacy Fuchino, Scott Archibald, Jeff Forman, and George Ross. The offense was headed by Outfielders Steve Voce and Willie Peterson. Mike Speltz, designated hitter, also contributed to the offensive assault.

George Ross, senior varsity shortstop, prepares to field a sharply hit groundball in a Bay League game against West. West inched past the Titans to win the game.

Stacy Fuchino, varsity second baseman, ropes a shot into the gap in right. Fu was influential during the season.

Senior Varsity Pitcher Darryl Speach prepares to throw a blazing fastball to strike out another West Torrance Warrior in Bay League competition.

Senior Outfielder Steve Voce hits another sharp line drive as he did throughout the season. Chispas proved to be a valuable asset to the team.

Senior Ed Taylor, who was the Jack Rabbit on the team, gets ready to steal another base against P.V. The Titans won 4-2.

Gymnastics

This year's Gymnastics Team was a very strong unified group of hard working girls. Though there were not many returning members, there was definitely a lot of new talent being brought forth. Cathy Cogan placed first in the first two meets, while Katie Place took second. Jeanette Billeter, Gayle Kawahara and Cammie Nishiyama added immensely to the teams success. Heidi Markle also supported the team for four years. Sophia Emmanouilides was a great team captain this year. She showed leadership and helped the girls tremendously. Ms. Riegle who was coaching Gymnastics gave guidance and was supportive to the whole team. Al Luzano was the assistant coach and Spotter who helped a great deal.

The team was one of the strongest in Bay League which was very important to them. Accomplishing routines successfully was just part of their determination. The team was very outstanding as a whole.

Katie Place is positioned very gracefully with hands perfectly poised. Being an excellent gymnast Katie displayed much of her ability throughout the season.

Cross Country

This was by far the best year ever for the Rolling Hills Girls Cross Country team. Captain Jill Harrington and Junior Stacy Nozaki both broke records while competing against South. Other excellent contributing varsity members were Junior Carol Takenaka, Sophomore Lori Collins, and Junior Julie Greenshields. A new runner, Freshman Andrea Bausch, proved to be excellent as she ran for the varsity squad. Overall, the girls team had a very impressive season, winning six out of their seven meets. With outstanding performances by all members, they placed second in Bay League competition. Their grueling training of eight to ten miles a day paid off when they made it to the CIF finals. This varsity team was ranked fifth in the CIF Southern. The junior varsity squad also had a successful season with standout runners Heidi Traxler and Jennifer Fox.

Laurie Collins and Jill Harrington concentrate on maintaining their lead against West. Collins and Harrington, experienced varsity members, had excellent endurance on the grueling 3.1 mile Peck Park course.

Varsity Team Captain Jill Harrington leads the pack against the notorious West team. This was the first year that the girls team beat West. Harrington showed outstanding leadership and ability this season.

Standout varsity runners Carol Takenaka and Stacy Nozaki show exceptional form in preparing for a strong finish. They developed superior stamina.

Varsity member Julie Greenshields uses her strong endurance to outpace her opponents at meet at Peck Park. Greenshields had a successful season.

Kathy Coulbourn, one of the few returning varsity players, dashes across the court to return an especially deep shot. A three year varsity member, she has been notably instrumental to the team's success this year.

Tennis

The girls tennis team has enjoyed an impressive year. A win over Santa Monica, a hard-fought loss to Palos Verdes, and a decisive win over Santa Barbara set a 17-3 record. Strong varsity and junior varsity players contributed to the team's success. Sandra Goern, who won the Ventura tournament was a key player along with Kristi Wagner and Kathy Coulbourn. Freshman Christine Behrens proved to be an outstanding player this season also. The junior varsity squad did well this year with strong players Michelle Inaba, Jacqueline Dasso, Danica Armstrong, and Maria Henke.

Volleyball

The Varsity volleyball team this year was led by the capable and experienced co-captains Colleen Bilas and Carianne Bridgman. Carianne was voted Most Valuable Player while Junior Katie Byrnett was chosen Most Inspirational Player. Scoring two big wins, including a 15-10, 15-7, 15-3 bout against P.V., their record of 2-14 put them in sixth place in the tough and highly competitive Bay League. The team was young, but improved with every game, according to Coach Kathi Bianchi. Significant players for the season were Junior Cindy Thomas and Sophomore Sharyl Bilas, both strong hitters and blockers. Katie Byrnett was the key setter as she consistently gave fine performances during the somewhat disappointing season. The Junior Varsity squad was also young, composed of all new players. Freshmen Sandy Billingsly and Alison Wood were key contributing players.

Soccer

The Girls' Soccer team had another remarkable season with a 10 wins, 3 losses and 1 tie Bay League record. Seniors Sherry Duerre, Stephanie West, Karen Yantz, and Carrienne Bridgman had been playing together for over three years and were the reason for the team's almost impenetrable defensive line. Veteran Varsity player Kristina LaFace also played exceptionally well this year.

Another prominent member of the defensive line was junior Katie Byrkett, who played goalie. It was a rare occasion when the ball got by this talented player.

Leaders of the powerful and aggressive offense were the main goal scorers, forward Alison Keller and halfback Suzanne LeBeau.

The Titans went into the CIF playoffs and beat Redondo, 4-1; Mission Viejo, 1-0 and Edison, 2-0. This outstanding team entered the semi-finals against P.V. The Titans won the game, but because of a technicality, could not go to the finals.

Alison Keller drives a straight on shot at the opposing goal while Suzanne LeBeau guards against oncoming opponents. This year's team works well together.

Carrienne Bridgman gives a congratulating hug to sophomore Amy Roth as they win a close game of 3-2 against Redondo Union High.

Swimming

The girls swimming and diving team has enjoyed moderate success this season. A perennial power the team was hampered by losses from graduation but still boasted the talent of seniors Kay Ceske, Katie Traxler, Molly Schneider, junior Heidi Traxler, and freshmen Amy Appelhans and Krista Wilson. Besides a fine showing in Bay League many on the team qualified for CIF competition, now a Rolling Hills tradition.

The Frosh / Soph team had an excellent turnout this year which led them to a good showing in many invitationals and meets. Leading the squad were sophomores Connie McKivett, Michelle Meese, Yoko Hanamura, Stephanie Nakamura and freshman Eva Wiese. The aquatics program seems to have a strong future.

Varsity Swimmer Kay Ceske contributed immensely to the swim team. She is preparing to swim the 50 yard Butterfly.

During the meet against Miraleste Joanie Whalen swims her favorite stroke, the Butterfly. She surfaces the water, takes a breath and continues to finish with excellent style.

Basketball

Even though this year's Girls' Basketball team has had a disappointing season due to numerous injuries and inexperience, the team has improved significantly with every game according to Coach Matt Dodson.

The leading players on the Varsity team were Co-captain Cindy Thomas, senior Lisa Thomas, and co-captain Patrice Westhead. Six foot four inch Cindy was the leading scorer of the team averaging an incredible 25 points per game. Sister Lisa Thomas was one of the leading rebounders of the varsity squad.

Westhead, a very versatile player who played several positions on the team also supplied much of the leadership and enthusiasm which was needed.

Overall, Varsity coach Matt Dodson was pleased with the performances of the several outstanding players and the dedication and attitude of the team as a whole.

Amazed by the precise shooting of Kathy Mailander, teammates Sue Elledge and Cindy Thomas look in awe as if frozen in time. They secretly know that the ball can be guided by telekinetic powers.

Co-captain Cindy Thomas makes a towering leap over her opponent to score two very valuable points in the game against Samo.

Four-year varsity letterwoman Jill Harrington puts her head down in concentration as she awaits the sound of the starting gun.

Track

This year's Girls' Varsity Track Team showed much enthusiasm and ability throughout the season. Although they were a fairly young team, the girl's individual performances were exceptional. Leading the sprint team were Co-Captain Meg Hauser, Gina Fong, Susan Li, and Freshman Anne Polzin. In the field events the Varsity standouts were Lisa Cowan throwing the shot put and Hurdlers Carol Hauser and Melanie Quong. Jill Harrington, a veteran varsity runner and co-captain, had an excellent season while being ranked in CIF in the 880 and the mile. Other outstanding distance runners included Stacey Nozaki, Carol Takenaka, and Laurie Collins who consistently performed well in league meets. The team improved with every meet making the season a positive and productive one.

Kim Pelletier takes some practice swings while warming up to bat against a South High pitcher.

Junior Tammy Bouse lifts her mitt in anticipation of another strike-out ball thrown by the pitcher. The team had a competitive season.

Softball

This year's Girls' Varsity Softball team had another competitive season in Bay League with the help of returning varsity members Kathy Anastasi, Kris Olinger, Kim Pelletier, Diana Poss, and Shirley Williams. All the girls contributed to the team's overall standing with consistently fine performances. Still another standout player who proved to be a very valuable asset this season was Freshman Pitcher Andrea Bausch. Coach Lynn Bridgman had a positive outlook throughout the season and commented that the fairly young team, despite the inexperience, proved that dedication and practice paid off.

Amusement Clubs

Trying to confuse and baffle skilled drivers, the Car Rally Club planned and sponsored rallies to provide extra nightly entertainment. Prizes were awarded to all first three place finishers. The Flyers Club's major function was to promote students' interests in aviation. Their activities ranged from watching history films, attending air shows and restoration projects to obtaining the actual flying experiences. The Gourmet Club not only provided the incentive for creative cooking but it also gave students opportunity to taste foods from different countries through potlucks and restaurant visits. Consisting of a group of wild and crazy students, the Green-No-Name Club had the purpose of improving communications throughout the school and promoting the color green.

Girls' Clubs

Girls' Service Club is an honors organization whose members assist at more than thirty school functions during the year, as well as help at many community events. All the money earned goes to the same needy families who are the recipients of the annual toys, food and clothing collection. Senior Girls Club is a special club to bring togetherness among senior girls and to promote spirit within the school. It is a club that unites the senior girls in projects of service and social functions. Girls League promotes loyalty, friendship, and service among the girls of Rolling Hills. Some of the activities of the Girls League are Button 'n' Bows, Power Puff Football, and decorating for the winter formal.

Service Clubs

The Library Committee assisted both public and school libraries with activities such as marathons, collecting surveys and book sales. The president of the library committee was the student board member of the P.V. Library District Board. Student Union was an organization which provided helpful and practical services for the school and community. Their goals were to improve the standards at RH and assist in the beautification of the campus. Interact worked with mentally handicapped children, visited the aged and sick in rest homes and hospitals, passed out phone books, and represented the school with honor. Teen Advocates were students who had been given the opportunity to help other students on campus. They went through a forty hour training session about drugs, sex, family problems, suicide, stress management and much more.

Academic Clubs

By providing tutoring services for students, the Toots Club helped to improve reading skills. This club also sponsored the popular lunchtime dance. The Academic Decathlon was a newly established organization on campus this year. It is an official activity of the International Olympic movement where a selected group of students participate in scholastic competitions involving ten academic areas between teams from the L.A. County schools. Model United Nations is a club designed to expose students to the workings of the United Nations. Through research, open debates and resolution drafting, competitions were insighted among members representing different nations. The club had received many honors and the trip to Harvard University highlighted the year's activities. The International Exchange Club, formerly AFS, is an organization that supported the exchange students attending RH. A variety of activities and fundraisers were planned to help students adjust to their new environments.

New Clubs

The Democratic Club returned after a brief absence. The club strove to cross the political barrier that exists on the peninsula. The Lonely Hearts Club was created to give its members the opportunity to learn various card games and to play cards more often so their skills and strategies could be improved. The Cinema was a new club created for avid movie goers. The members organized and participated in trips to movie theaters and movie studios. The Animal Welfare Club promoted the welfare of animals world wide and especially the preservation of endangered species. Activities included fund-raising, films, and field trips in support of nation-wide and local groups who supported preservation interests. The Quest Club was set up to promote the playing of adventure games. The members met weekly in the career center to play their games.

French Honor Society

Academic and Tennis Clubs

Satori is a literary magazine which contains students' submissions of poetry, prose, and a variety of artworks. Club members organize the selection and publication process. The French Honor Society, also known as the SHF, is the first foreign language honor society at Rolling Hills. Students are admitted into the club based on scholastic achievements in the study of the French language, citizenship and overall grade point average. Girls and Boys tennis club provided public services for the local schools and community.

Service Clubs

The Touchdown Club supported our Titan football team. The members set a goal to improve the football program with fund-raising and spirit motivating. The Dugout Club supported the Rolling Hills High School baseball teams by selling concessions at the games, keeping score, and cleaning up after games. The goal of the members was to motivate a greater interest in the baseball team. The Lettermen's Club consisted of all varsity members, who have earned their letters, and have been courageous enough to go through the challenging initiations. As members, they organized Donkey Basketball, visited underprivileged children, and delivered phone books around the peninsula. Key Club members had to apply and go through interviews to become members. Activities of Key Club included social gatherings, choosing a Key Club Queen and four Princesses, and serving the community.

Bleacher Bums

Athletic Clubs

Bleacher Bums were Rolling Hills High's own cheering section. They attended football and basketball games to spread their enthusiasm and spirit to the whole student body. The Volleyball Club catered to everyone of the volleyball persuasion regardless of skill level. Beginners and experts joined either a two-man or a six man game, or chose to get instruction on fundamentals. The Ski Club promoted several ski activities such as Warren Miller films, demonstrations in equipment usage, and special rates at local sports shops. The club took trips to various places such as Jackson Hole, Utah, Lake Tahoe, and monthly trips to Mammoth. The special feeling which arose in the Ski Club resulted from the dedication and enthusiastic skiers in the club.

Spirit Clubs

The spirit at the half time performances and pep rallies was attributed to the talented members of the Marching Band. They placed first and second at the Rancho Cucamonga and Camarillo Parades, respectively. The Tall Flags, Short Flags, and Drill Team squads are made up of highly energetic girls. Their main functions were to promote school spirit at various sports events and to provide entertainment for both the school and the community. This year, all three squads had each received numerous awards for their excellent performances in competitions. As the leader of marching band, Drum Major Steve Fowler had obtained awards and high honors from parades and competitions.

String Quartet

Instrumental Music Groups

This year's instrumental music department was very talented. The Orchestra won numerous awards including three superiors, which are the highest awards given to a group in a competition. The Wind Ensemble also did well in these musical competitions. Each year, four of the most talented members of the Orchestra branch off to form the String Quartet. This group performed at many functions including the Winter and Spring Concerts.

Choreo

Performing Arts

The Shakespeare society sponsored activities such as attending Shakespearean plays and participating in the annual Shakespeare festival to promote students' interests in Shakespearean literature. The Drama Club practiced dramatic arts by performing in drama productions, participating in Drama Festival competitions and going on theatre trips. The Thespian Society is an international honor society for those who have outstanding achievements in dramatic arts. Choreo mainly participated in dance related programs which were performed periodically for the Rolling Hills High student body. Forensics is competitive speech divided into subcategories under headings of original and interpretive events. The club's main activity was participation in weekend competitions which was culminated by the State Finals.

Performing Arts and Game Clubs

P.A.T.S. is a club which was consisted of a small group of technical oriented students. Under the direction of Ron Keele, they built the sets for all the school plays such as "The Man Who Came to Dinner", and "Babes in Arms". The Folksinger Club was formed by students who are interested in singing. This club organized the annual Fall and Spring Hootenannies. The Chess, Simulation, and Oriental Game Clubs were established to give students a chance to improve their skills in playing different kinds of games.

Terri, Shari, and Shawna, We've been through a lot in four years (the good and the bad), and I want you to know how much I love you guys. This was the closest thing I could find. Something memorable, something permanent, yet meant to be personal. Something for others to look at and wish they had the special friends I've got. I'll love you always.

A message to all the idiotic nit wits who ignored Mickey Mouse's superiority over Garfield: You people don't know anything about the art of animation. Jim Davis' stupid cat can't even hold a candle to Mickey, one of America's finest monuments. You blockheads who childishly rejected Mickey throughout the year have no intelligence or sense of reality. That also goes for the people with microscopic personalities that rejected Disneyland, EPCOT, Tron or Disney itself.

Sincerely,
Dave

Dearest Redy,

Titan

Continuing tradition, the members of the Titan managed to put out a fine paper. Despite an editor-in-chief who believed Van Halen is God's gift to the world, a news editor whose biggest concern was what type of burrito his mommy gave him and whom he will share with, an editorial editor who agreed with no one (for the sake of doing so, of course), and other small nuisances scattered in H-62, (rodents, self-acclaimed guitar players, "looky loos", and arrogant letters without signatures. Some journalists (yes, we had a few) really added much to this year. It is truly a shame that the newspaper is not taken more seriously by certain staff members and the ASB alike, however. As have the Drama Department and Student Government, the Titan has taken its share of undue criticism. This year's Titan, which was stamped as one of its better years, was produced by a hard-working, dedicated crew of six or seven (there were five times that many on staff, however.) If people only saw those hard-working, dedicated writers in action, and knew of the incredibly long hours they worked, they might appreciate the respective productions more. I guess it's easier to criticize than to do. Letters to the editor may be sent to H-62 . . . next year.

For someone special . . .

It's finally over, the trials and tribulations of a new year and working with a generally inexperienced staff. The closely-made deadlines and last minute decisions have finally paid off. Here it is, the 1983 Delphian. It could not have been done without the efforts of so many dedicated staff members. In all honesty, I was worried at the beginning of the year. Almost every returning staffer was appointed an editor position. Consequently, few knew what they were doing. Although they did learn very quickly.

I must single out several people and thank them personally for their help, leadership, and just plain being there when we needed them. Kristen and Stuart always had the answers. John, Wally, and Gary always had a picture to fill a space and rarely missed an assignment or deadline. I can't forget Rich, Cathy, Jenny, Robin, Diane, David F., and Marvin who, through thick and thin, helped me through with support, courage, and caring. In addition to the staff, I must thank Steve and Mary Henderson of Stevens Studios for their quality work, prompt service, and most importantly, their patience. And I want to express my appreciation to Jeff, Spencer, and Kurt for their professional photographic expertise. A special thanks goes to Konnie Krislock, our yearbook representative, who gave us guidance, support, and instant answers. Last, and by far not the least, a heart-felt thanks goes to Sandy Grasinger. I cannot express the amount of gratitude I have for her. Without a doubt, she was the single-most driving force on our staff. She always had an answer for every crisis, and for the most part, she remained calm throughout the chaotic times. I am greatly indebted to her.

This part of my long and winding road is over, and for the most part, I am relieved, but as I look back, I am sorry to see its passing.

Long and Winding Road

The hills we encounter are not always surmountable; so we adjust our paths to go around such problems as we keep pushing forward.

Long and Winding Road

We are idealistic during the freshman year, but hesitant as we begin the task of clearing the way.

As sophomores we confidently forge ahead over the obstacles after surviving the seige of the upperclassmen.

Long and Winding Road

Long and Winding Road

We were uncertain of our new role as juniors, but eventually we adjusted and continued the journey.

When we finally reach the end of our paths as seniors, we realize that we will miss the trials and tribulations we encountered throughout that small part of the journey.

Long and Winding Road

Long and Winding Road

Sometimes an abrupt stop will detour our journey down the path of life, but we keep going, stopping only momentarily to adjust our route.

All too quickly this part of the journey ends, and the question of what lies around the next curve remains a mystery.
